Claims of Human Rights Violations in Ukraine

The following includes graphic and disturbing images, videos, and allegations. These allegations have not been independently verified or confirmed. However, if true, these claims demonstrate human rights crimes that should take precedence over politics. Humanitarian concerns should always be more important than politics.

The Times of Israel (<https://www.timesofisrael.com/footage-shows-israelis-car-coming-under-ukrainian-fire-in-deadly-mistaken-identity/>) confirmed Ukrainian civilian defense militia murdered an Israeli citizens during an ambush (video here). Report says Roman Brodsky now believed to have been killed by Ukrainian civilian defense militia; 'How can you shoot without checking? Animals!' exclaims his partner

Footage said to show the moment Roman Brodsky was shot dead while trying to flee Ukraine, broadcast on March 2, 2022 (Kan/Screen grab)

Video footage was released Wednesday by Israeli television purportedly showing the deadly shooting of an Israeli man traveling in a convoy outside Kyiv when Ukrainian troops apparently mistook him for a Russian-aligned militant.

The Kan public broadcaster said it appeared the gunman was a member of a Ukrainian civilian defense militia. It had earlier been reported that the Israeli was killed by a Ukrainian soldier.

Roman Brodsky, a father of two, had been living in Ukraine with his family.

Brodsky's partner, named only as Mila, told Kan that she believed he was shot dead on Monday when he was misidentified after a photograph circulated in Ukraine showing Chechen fighters in a black Porsche, similar to her partner's vehicle.

"I was driving the other car behind him, as soon as the shooting started I got out of the car. I heard people say they were waiting for some Porsche. Is that him? How can you shoot without checking the vehicle documents? Our vehicle was a different color. Animals!" Mila said.

Jedem das Seine - Wikipedia

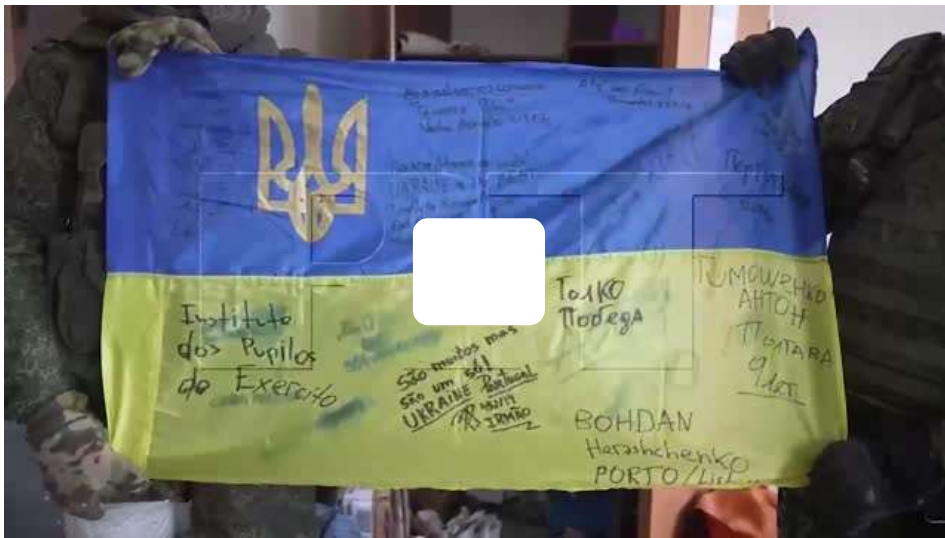

"Jedem das Seine" (German pronunciation: [ˈjeːdɐm das ˈzaɪnə]) is the literal German translation of the Latin phrase suum cuique, meaning "to each his own" or "to each what he deserves". During World War II the phrase was cynically used by the Nazis as a motto displayed over the entrance of Buchenwald concentration camp. This has resulted in use of the phrase being considered controversial in modern Germany.

There is no a clear motive for this illegal abuses. They are labelled as marauders. That can include men who don't want to fight, who are suspected of russian sympathy, looters or people searching for food.
